

Return to Vendor Policy

Basic Policy Information

You may RTV Astral product based on their warranty guide below:

All Astral products are guaranteed under warranty to the original purchaser against defects in materials and workmanship for the reasonable lifespan of the product.

If you believe that your Astral product has a manufacturing defect, discontinue use immediately. Please note, continued use of a defective item may void the warranty.

Astral reserves the right to determine what is a manufacturing defect. This does not include normal wear and tear, product misuse, or accidental damage.

If found to be covered under warranty, Astral will replace the product.
